Signature Golf Gives Back to the Community

TORONTO, CANADA - July 11, 2011 -

Signature Golf, Canada's leading commercial golf club insurance program, was pleased to present a cheque to the Women in Insurance Cancer Crusade at the 2011 WICC Golf Tournament.

"At Signature Golf we are always looking for ways to give back to our insurance and golf industry partners. WICC is a terrific example of leadership for good in the insurance industry and we were thrilled to be a small part of their successful day," said James Grant, President & CEO of Signature Risk Partners Inc.

Ashley Chinner, Director of Golf presents a cheque to the 50/50 Draw winner Lynn Croydon.

The 2011 WICC Golf Fore the Cure Tournament was held at Angus Glen Golf Course near Toronto. Now in its 12th year this event has helped WICC raise over $5 million for cancer research. The event was attended by over 350 insurance executives and Q107's Maureen Holloway acted as the master of ceremonies.

Signature Golf was also pleased to be a Silver Sponsor of the event. Ashley Chinner, Director of Golf, at Signature and a former touring golf professional spent the morning on the driving range giving free instruction to tournament participants.
