Attention Business Editors:

Canadian PGA Champion and Insurance Expert Ashley Chinner joins Signature Golf.

TORONTO, CANADA - April 21, 2011 - Signature Risk Partners Inc., Canada's leading golf club and winery insurer, is pleased to announce that Ashley Chinner has joined Signature Golf as Director of Golf.

"We are thrilled to welcome Ashley to our growing team at Signature Golf. Ashley brings nearly ten years of commercial golf insurance experience and he will be a tremendous resource for our partner brokers as they work with their golf club clients," said James Grant, President & CEO of Signature Risk Partners Inc.

Mr. Chinner is a past champion of the Canadian PGA Championship and was the low Canadian in the 1998 Bell Canadian Open finishing with a 5-under 283 at Glenn Abbey Golf Club.

"Ashley's vast tournament experience at courses across Canada and around the world paired with his insurance expertise enable him to bring exceptional knowledge to the insurance buying process for brokers utilizing Signature Golf. In his new role as Director of Golf Ashley will work closely with our broker partners to help them provide the best coverage available to their golf course clients," said Grant.

Launched in June, 2007 Signature Golf is the market leader in golf club insurance and the program currently insures golf clubs in 6 provinces across the country.
